September 29, 1988, and ending on the day before the date of the enactment of this Act, as if the amendments had become effective on September 29, 1988.

(e) TRANSITION.—(1) In the case of a person who qualified as a dependent under section 645(c) of the Department of Defense Authorization Act, 1985 (Public Law 98-525; 98 Stat. 2549), on September 28, 1988, the Secretary of Defense shall make a conversion health policy available for purchase by the person during the remaining period the person is considered to be a dependent under that section (or within a reasonable time after that period as prescribed by the Secretary of Defense).

10 use 1072 note.

(2) Purchase of a conversion health policy under paragraph (1) by a person shall entitle the person to health care for preexisting conditions in the same manner and to the same extent as provided by section 1086a(b) of title 10, United States Code (as added by subsection (b)), until the end of the one-year period beginning on the later of—

(1) the date the person is no longer qualified as a dependent under section 645(c) of the Department of Defense Authorization Act, 1985; and

(2) the date of the purchase of the policy.

(3) For purposes of this subsection, the term "conversion health policy" has the meaning given that term in section 1086a(c) of title 10, United States Code (as added by subsection (b)).

TITLE VIII—ACQUISITION POLICY, ACQUISITION MANAGEMENT, AND RELATED MATTERS

PART A—PROCEDURES FOR MAJOR DEFENSE ACQUISITION PROGRAMS

SEC. 801. ASSESSMENT OF RISK IN CONCURRENT DEVELOPMENT OF MAJOR DEFENSE ACQUISITION SYSTEMS

10 USC 2399 note.

(a) ESTABLISHMENT OF POLICY.—The Secretary of Defense shall establish guidelines for—

(3) determining the degree of concurrency that as appropriate for the development of major defense acquisition systems; and

(4) assessing the degree of risk associated with various degrees of concurrency.

(5) REPORT ON GUIDELINES.—The Secretary shall submit to Congress a report that describes the guidelines established under subsection (a) and the method used for assessing risk associated with concurrency.

(6) REPORT ON CONCURRENCY IN MAJOR ACQUISITION PROGRAMS.—(1) The Secretary shall also submit to Congress a report outlining the risk associated with concurrency for each major defense acquisition program that is in either full-scale development or low-rate initial production as of January 1, 1990.

(2) The report shall include consideration of the following matters with respect to each such program:

(7) The degree of confidence in the enemy threat assessment for establishing the system's requirements.

(8) The type of contract involved.

(9) The degree of stability in program funding.

(D) The level of maturity of technology involved in the system.